List of trainings for Tour Visa Processing Staff:

1. Understanding the Visa Process: This training covers the basics of visa processing, including understanding the different types of visas and the associated application processes.

2. General Immigration Procedures: This training covers general immigration procedures, including understanding residency requirements, filing documents, and staying in compliance with immigration laws.

3. Immigration Law: This training covers the fundamentals of immigration law, including studying case law, researching regulations, and understanding the legal responsibilities of employers.

4. Tourist Visa Applications: This training covers the specifics of tourist visa applications, including understanding the eligibility requirements, submitting documents, and understanding the timelines for processing.

5. Interview Skills: This training covers the basics of conducting an effective visa interview, including understanding cultural nuances, asking the right questions, and staying professional.

6. Conflict Resolution: This training covers the basics of resolving conflicts between visa applicants, including understanding the underlying issues, communicating effectively, and finding a resolution.

7. Customer Service: This training covers the basics of customer service in the visa processing field, including understanding customer needs, providing timely assistance, and staying professional.